MEDIA RELEASE

Congratulations to Deputy Chief Shannon Bunger!

Officer Shannon Bunger was approved at Monday evening's Town Council meeting to serve as the Deputy Chief of the Ellettsville Police Department.

Officer Bunger began his law enforcement career with the Indiana University Police Department in the fall of 1995. He graduated from the Indiana University Police Department Police Academy in the summer of 1996 and went on to earn his undergraduate degree from Indiana University and a Master's Degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Cincinnati.

During his 29 years with the Indiana University Police Department, Officer Bunger served in numerous leadership positions, holding the ranks of Sergeant, Lieutenant, Captain, and Deputy Chief. He is also a graduate of the FBI National Academy, Class #275.

Officer Bunger retired from the Indiana University Police Department in the summer of 2024 and joined the Ellettsville Police Department full-time in February 2025. Since joining EPD, he has served as the School Resource Officer at Edgewood Jr. High School, where he has built strong relationships with students, staff, and the school community.

We are excited to welcome Officer Bunger into his new role and look forward to the experience, leadership, and dedication he will bring to the Ellettsville Police Department.

Congratulations, Deputy Chief Bunger! We are proud to have you serving the Town of Ellettsville and our community.
