

MEDIA RELEASE

ELLETTSVILLE POLICE ASSIST WITH TRAFFIC AND SECURITY AT I.U. BALLGAMES

ELLETTSVILLE, INDIANA (October 14, 2018): The Ellettsville Police Department has been providing traffic and event security assistance to Indiana University Police at the Indiana University football and basketball games since 2010. Since that time, the assistance the Ellettsville Police have provided I.U. Police has expanded to providing these same services for spring and fall commencement and various special events on the I.U. campus throughout the year. Events include Greek rush weeks, major music concerts, I.U. baseball and I.H.S.A.A. track and field events. Marshal Jimmie Durnil commented by saying, "We are always more than happy to help Indiana University Police keep the peace and maintain security at these events."

Picture: This picture was taken October 13th at the IU vs. Iowa football game at the IU Foundation pre-game police briefing. Pictured are Marshal Jimmie Durnil (front center) and the officers who were working that particular event.