DEFENSIVE TACTICS AND TASER TRAINING – NOVEMBER 30, 2017

On Thursday, November 30, officers completed their annual defensive tactics and TASER re-certification training. Indiana state law requires law enforcement officers to complete two hours of defensive tactics training each year. TASER requires officers to complete two hours of re-certification training each year.

The Ellettsville Police Department is committed to ensuring our officers are highly trained to handle any situation in our community.

A big thank you to Mike and Emily Brzegowy (IUPD-Bloomington) for their assistance in instructing a portion of the class! Also thank you to the IUPD-Bloomington officer and five cadets who volunteered to undergo a TASER deployment to assist with some more hands-on training for the TASER portion!
